Inside Track

Philippine Long Distance Telephone Company chairman Manuel V. Pangilinan was recently conferred the degree of Doctor of Humanities, honoris causa, by the Holy Angel University, in Angeles City, Pampanga, coinciding with the school's Diamond Jubilee celebration. The university honored Pangilinan for his outstanding work in the academe, in charity, arts and culture, sports and health services. Photo shows Holy Angel University (HAU) president Dr. Arlyn S. Villanueva, left, and Center for Kapampangan Studies researcher Arwin Paul A. Lingat conferring upon Pangilinan doctorate degree honors at the university theater. Assisting in the conferment is Tess Pangilinan-de los Reyes, sister of the honoree.
