COURSE OUTLINE in Language Programs and Policies in Multilingual Societies

COURSE TITLE: Language Programs and Policies in Multilingual Societies

COURSE CODE: LPPMLINGSOC

NUMBER OF UNITS: 3 UNITS

CONTACT HOURS: 3 HOURS

PREREQUISITE:

COURSE REQUIREMENTS: Portfolio of Languages used in Different Social Situations

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The course provides a survey of local and international basic education language programs and policies that account for issues and considerations relevant to the engagement of teachers in school settings.

COURSE CONTENT

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>PRELIM and MIDTERM</th>
<th>FINALS</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2. Relationship between Language and Society</td>
<td>6. Language Policy Choices in Multilingual Societies</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Socio-linguistic Concepts (bilingualism, code-switching, language change, language shift, language death, language revival, standard and vernacular languages, national and official languages, regional and social dialects)</td>
<td>7. Language Teaching and Learning</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Introduction to Basic Education Language Programs, Policies, and Planning</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

GRADING SYSTEM (Campus ++):
Class Standing: 70%
Major Exams: 30%
Passing Percentage for General Education Subjects: 50%
Passing Percentage for Professional and major subjects: 60%

REFERENCES:

